1. Chapter 1

Flee the walking dead

Bzz Bzz Bzz! Daniel jolted awake due to his alarm clock going off he looked and saw it on the floor lying next to his wife and a man laying under her. "Honey what is going on who is that?!" His wife Amelia stood up revealing left cheek is gone leaving a huge wound. "Honey? are you okay?". She walked towards him and lunged onto him. He leaned back and ran out his bedroom door holding it shut. He heard her pounding on it and growling from inside. Daniel leaned towards the table in the hall and grabbed the screwdriver on it. He then moved the chair at the table to the front of the door stopping the knob from turning. He then ran down the hall to his daughter Diane who was standing in front of her bedroom door staring at Daniel. "Daddy"? is mommy still sleeping"? Daniel looked at Diane and began to cry trying not to make noise. "Yes Sweetieâ€|mommy is still sleeping" .He held his hand over his face and began to cry. "Daddy? "What's wrong"? "Sweetieâ€|Your motherâ€|is" .He was interrupted by his bedroom door cracking open and Amelia walking out. Diane screamed and hid behind Daniel. "Daddy what's wrong with mommy"? Daniel stood staring at Amelia and she lunged at him forcing him to stab her in the eye with the screwdriver he picked up. Diane walked out from behind Daniel and Daniel picked her up. "Daddy"? She asked. He didn't respond and continued walking. He walked down the stairs and to the closet. He grabbed a shotgun from inside it and a backpack hanging on the wall. He picked up the three boxes of shotgun ammo off the shelf and he looked out the front door window. He saw seven off them out in his yard and shot one through the window luring the other six to the door he shot them when they packed together killing three then shot the others individually. He went outside and ran to his car and looked in his rear view mirror. He then saw a large herd of them quickly turned the key but could not drive he looked at his fuel gauge and it was empty. He looked back in the rear view mirror and saw them all nearly directly behind his car. "Shit!"

2. Chapter 2 Blue Shield

"Nixon"! "What Dan"? "Look down there a herds coming in fast and that car there isn't moving".

Nixon walked over to the roof edge and looked down at the car . "Damn!" looks like he's screwed" .that's all you are going to do" ?Dan asked. "What should I do"? Nixon asked. Go and get myself eaten like Liva"? !"I don't know about you but I'm the type to sacrifice myself like your white ride"! "Hey don't talk about Lila that way! she died trying to save your son". " And she failed!" Dan pulled out a flare from his pocket and threw it in front of Daniels cars. Daniel looked at it and saw Dan on the roof off the building directly to the left across the street. Dan pulled a rope out of his bag and tied it to a pipe and dropped it down the building. He then directed Daniel to climb it. He grabbed Diane and ran out the car. "Hang on to my back Diane". "Okay Daddy". She replied .He grabbed the rope and began climbing up the wall. He looked down and saw the herd quickly approaching the wall. He began to climb faster but a walker grabbed Diane's leg and began pulling her down. "Daddy"! She screamed as she was pulled down. "No Diane"! Daniel grabbed Diane's hand and pulled her onto his shoulders but a walker grabbed Daniels leg and he slowly began descending down the wall. Daniel started using his shotgun to shoot the one holding him and shot others near him to .He started climbing up again and succeeded to climb to the roof before the walkers could pull him down. "Are you guys okay? Dan asked. "Yeah I'm okay". Daniel replied . "Daddy"? "What dear"? Daniel replied. "One of them bit me" .Daniel looked at Diane as she slightly lifted her dress revealing the front of her shins was bitten off and bleeding. "We need to put her down". Nixon said. "What"?!Daniel exclaimed. "She is just a little girl why would we need to kill her"?!"What "?!Diane screamed attracting more walkers to the bottom of the building. "She got bit people who get bit turn into one of them down there" .Daniel stood staring at Diane realizing that must have been what happened to Amelia. "Diane!".Daniel pulled out his shotgun and pointed it at Diane's head. "Daddy"?!"what are you doing"? "I cant do it" .Dan walked to him and Daniel stood back. "I guess your name is Diane!"well I am so so sorry for this. Dan pulled out his handgun from a holster and pointed it at Diane's head. "Daddy" .She stared at Daniel with tears in her eyes. "Diane I'm sorry" Daniel replied. Dan pulled the trigger and Diane's corpse fell over on to its side. Daniel looked down at her and kissed her . "I'm so sorry Diane" .Daniel said. He picked Diane's corpse up and dropped it into the alley between this building and the next. "I love you" .Daniel whispered as he dropped her down. "So we haven't properly met yet" .I'm Nixon this is Dan and you are"? "I am Daniel" "Well now we all know each other time to get to business we saved you now give us that bag on your back". "Why"? Daniel replied. "Because I said and if you don't I'm going to have to take it by force" .Daniel felt his heart rate increase as Nixon and Dan both pointed guns at him. "So what will it be will you put your bag and gun on the ground or will we put you on the ground"? Dan and Nixon approached him near the edge and Daniel knocked Dan's gun to the left and began using Dan as a human shield. "What you think I wont shoot because you got him in your arms? I don't give a fuck if he dies in fact as proof ill shot you right now"! Nixon shot his gun killing Dan and knocking Daniel back between the buildings. He put Dan under him to break his fall back his ankle twisted and stuck out from his leg. Daniel screamed and Nixon looked down and started shooting. Daniel put Dan on top of him to block the bullets but walkers started entering the alley. He looked back and saw that the alley ended and a fence. He stood up limping and began shooting at Nixon with his gun that fell from his bag. He hit Nixon's leg and blew it off causing him to fall into the alley with nothing to break his fall. He piled up Diane ,Dan and Nixon while he was still alive and used them as a distraction from the walkers as he limped to the fence and climbed over it. He saw a gas station and an old man there pumping up his car. "Stop"! Daniel yelled. "I need help are you a doctor"? "No I'm not but I know one get in my van I have a bed you can lay on. The man went in his van and two other people walked out, they helped him onto a supportive bed for transporting wounded people and carried him into the van. "What's your name"? Daniel asked. "I'm Jason this is May and that's Fernando. May is the one that saved your life. "What"? Daniel asked. "That man that was shooting at you when you shot it broke a window. May shot him with her R700 and blew off his leg. "You don't this that at that distance a shotgun can do that much do you"? Daniel didn't respond and passed out. "Shit"! Jason said. "we need to get to Black Shield quick or Daniel will die. "How far are we"? May asked"? "Twenty three miles". There was a temporary silence that was broken by a herd of walkers blocking the road. "We need to get through here". Jason said. Fernando grabbed May's arm and opened the door. "May I'm sorry" .Fernando threw may out off the road and closed and locked the door. Jason watched as the herd moved off the road towards may. May ran after them screaming to let her back in but Fernando leaned out the window and shot may in the leg with here R700 causing her knee to split. She screamed and the walkers surrounded her silencing her agonizing screams that are mostly of terror. "Fernando you just killed May why"?!"Because I had to so everyone else could live. You saw the size of that herd there was no other way. If you were against it why did you wait until now to say anything"?!"I waited because we all knew this would happen. "Whatâ€| who what do you mean"? Fernando said .Jason stopped the car. "Fernando everyone at Blue Shield knew you would kill May we just didn't know how. Even if you did it that way you have been planning it since she arrived." "What's your point"? Fernando asked. "No matter what we don't kill anyone in our group now we are going to have you pay for it. Jason punched Fernando in the jaw knocking him out .He tied his hands together behind his back and his legs blindfolded him and then put him in the road. "I'm sorry Fernando but we don't allow friendly killing at Blue Shield. Wake up Daniel we are here welcome to Blue Shield.

3. Chapter 3 Mental

Daniel Woke up in a hospital bed in a long building full of hospital beds with just the one room with them in it. He didn't see anyone in any of the beds or off of them. "Hello"?! Daniel exclaimed. A man walked in and stood in front off the bed "Hello Daniel how are you feeling" ?"I feel alright who are you"? He replied. I am Jean Harbor I'm a doctor, I am here to help you because your ankle is broken" "No kidding". Daniel replied. "Where am I"? Daniel asked. "You are at Blue Shield, we are the most government like organized group anywhere in the world because we have government officials ,C.D.C scientists, and enough supplies to survive .We are focused on finding a cure for the virus that causes people to become Walkers and we are almost complete with it. Soon walkers will no longer be a problem and civilization will be rebuilt. "You are close to being able to make walkers normal"? "Actually we have a single dosage that works we just need to reproduce it.*BOOM. "What was that"? Daniel asked. He looked to Jean and he saw the side of his head blown off and a bullet hole through the door window. Daniel stood up but couldn't walk without limping. He saw Jean had a cane and grabbed it to walk. He went outside and saw the town. There were tall buildings ,houses, storage areas, farms etc. .He saw the wall surrounding it was blown up though and armed men were firing out of it. Daniel went to see why and saw that a tank shot the wall and a massive herd was entering the town. He walked to the building that said possessions of civilians. He grabbed his shotgun and bag and went to the building that said C.D.C research. He walked into the downstairs lab area and asked a scientist if he can see the walker antidote. The scientist handed it to him and Daniel pointed his gun at him and pulled the trigger .Daniel ran outside the C.D.C building before he got caught and saw the town was overwhelmed by walkers. He climbed the ladder on the wall and jumped down causing his ankle to snap off. He screamed where and attracted more walkers to him. He kept limping and using the cane until he saw Jason's RV he got in and drove in the direction of Diane hoping she was still there. When he arrived he saw her corpse he tried injecting the antidote but it had no effect, he just remembered she was shot. He then wished he didn't let Dan kill her but if he didn't he probably wouldn't have got the serum anyway. Daniel looked up and saw Dan standing at the edge of the roof. "Dan you are dead how are you standing"? "Daniel why did you do that? You used me as a shield and then left me to die after crushing me from the fall to the ground and getting me shot. Even after I killed your daughter for you so you didn't have to feel guilty." "Dan I'm sorry . Daniel saw a jagged metal piece on the ground and charged at Dan he stabbed him in the abdomen and Dan grabbed him and threw him off the building and jumped on his chest. Daniel started to asphyxiate from Dan sitting on his so he stabbed the metal into his eye and sliced to the left so he fell off him to avoid suffering more. Daniel took Dan's handgun and shot Dan 20 times in the back but didn't kill him. He then threw Dan into the road to attract walkers. "How do you like that Dan go to fucking hell you Shit Eater. Daniel then put Dan's handgun to his head and said "Diane Amelia I'm going to see you soon" .Daniel lowered the gun and shot Dan and he exclaimed in pain. Daniel walked to the RV and drove away now with no destination or objective he stood there deciding where to go but it seemed pointless to decide so he just drove straight.

4. Chapter 4 Encage

static "Hello can anybody hear me I'm at BlueShield drive straight from Atlanta to find it I need help the walker antidote has been stolen by Daniel Homes if you see an RV with BlueShieldX5 written on the left side of it please neutralize the driver and retrieve the Walker Antidote. If you bring it to us we will give you 700 pounds of fresh MREs in crates." Daniel looked around the road and was relieved that he had some time to think about what to do he is probably being looked for now and he used the antidote on Diane because he didn't know people don't become walkers by being bitten after they are shot in the head .He looked ahead and saw a truck drive into the road and turn so its blocked. The back opened and several people walked out and two people came out of the front. "Hey you get out of your RV right now or we are going to have to force you". Daniel watched as they all picked up a gun and pointed it at him through his window.

"I'm not going to tell you again get the fuck out of your vehicle"! Daniel slowly moved his hand down to his gun lying next to his seat. Daniel got to the floor and locked the doors then he crawled into the back area of the RV and climbed under a blanket on the top bunk bed in the back. "Okay then if you play a game of hide and seek we can play with you". The man broke through the front window on the car and Daniel shot him causing him to fall backwards off the vehicle. "No Daddy"! A child's voice yelled as he ran to him. "Daddy are you okay"? "please wake up". Daniel looked and saw a small boy standing in front of the person he shot through the window. The child grabbed a handgun from the corpse and shot randomly into the RV and hitting Daniel in the shoulder. Daniel gasped and held his hand over his shoulder as many others entered the RV. He quickly moved his hand off his shoulder to his gun and shot them using four bullets. The last of the people outside entered the RV and swung a metal bat hitting Daniel in the head and knocking him out. "Good morning sleepy head"! "Get the fuck up"! Daniel awoke in a jail cage in what looked like a prison hall. "Who are you"? Daniel asked. "I'm not anyone important just the person that popped your daughter's head into three pieces". "Your Dan"? Daniel asked. "Yeah my names Dan and yours is Daniel and you are the one who instead of killing me left me to rot. Daniel looked around and asked "Where are we"? "We are at Red Flame Keep our leader is Fernando because before our leader died two days ago he said when he dies he will be our leader". "Fernando"? Daniel asked. "Yeah we found him tied up in the road and saved him so then we took him be back here and he wants to see you". "He wants to see me"? Daniel asked. "He said he knows you and he thinks that you need help because of your leg". Daniel looked down at his leg and saw the bone was nearly detached. "Damn am I going to die"? Daniel asked. "No, you're not going to die because we are going to save you because you know our leader". Daniel stared at Dan and readied his hands to choke him. He lunged on top of him and punched him in the face repeatedly. "Daniel why"? Dan asked. Daniel stopped and stood up and said. "Because you shot my daughter in the head because she was bit and you didn't even tell me she wouldn't become one if she was shot and if she became a walker I could have brought her back and because you didn't tell me the world has no antidote for becoming one of them and every C.D.C lab and scientist is dead". Daniel stared and said. "I guess its not your fault. It was my fault for climbing up there to you because otherwise my daughter wouldn't have been bit and even if she was later I could have saved her". Daniel stared at Dan and the door to the hall opened and Fernando walked in. "Hello Daniel remember me its Fernando I'm the one that was thrown off the RV because I used May to save us". How did you do that"? Daniel asked hesitantly. "I threw her off when the road was blocked by a herd and the road was cleared after that she tried to run after us making the herd follow us so I shot her leg off with her gun and she got eaten". Daniel stared at Fernando speechlessly gasping. *BOOM. A gunshot through the window above the door and Fernando fell face first to the ground. Dan flipped him around and his face was gone except for the flesh on the top of his skull. He looked and his face landed at the end of the hall. "Fernando are you okay"? Dan asked. Dan put his ear to his chest and there was no heartbeat. "He is dead". Dan said. *BOOM

5. Chapter 5 The Haven

*BOOM. Dan shot out the window with his rifle and ran out the door. He looked around he saw a man fall from a tree leaning over the wall

into the base. Dan walked over to him and saw that the wound from Dan's gun hit him in his shoulder. "Now why don't you tell us what business you got with Fernando". Dan said as he pointed his handgun at the mans head. "I shot him because he fed my daughter to the biters and shot her leg off. I know because I have her here with me alive"! The man stood up and walked to the wall and pointed through the fenced part at a car and May walked out of the passengers seat and stood on a real and prosthetic leg. "It's a good thing my dads a doctor". May exclaimed. "What's your name"? Dan asked. "My name is George Lenny and I was a doctor for twenty seven years". George stood up and pulled a bandage out of his pocket and put it on his arm. "Luckily no shrapnel's got stuck in me otherwise I would need surgery". George turned to walk away. "Hold on buddy we're not done with you yet. You think you can just waltz in here shoot our leader in the head and waltz out? No no no boy you aren't leaving yet." Dan readied his baton from his belt and swung it hitting George in the head knocking him out. Dan picked up George, carried him to a prison cell and then locked him in it. May ran to the wall and began pounding and demanding that they return her father to her. Daniel walked to the fence and confronted May. "May you want your father"? "Yes of course I do I've been screaming it now give him to me"! Daniel didn't know what to say because he just arrived here, he hasn't met anyone, the leader is dead and he didn't know who could let George out of the cage without it being an act of treason against the people who saved him and gave him a home. Daniel then remembered that these people were going to kill him and he's only alive because of Fernando and he is dead now so these people probably hate me because I got off easy after killing a small child's father. Daniel then remembered that he was shot in the shoulder. Daniel walked into the jail and went to George. "Psst George I need your help I can get you out of this jail and town if you can help me". "what do you need"? George asked. "I need you to patch up my shoulder and I need a prosthetic leg". Daniel replied. "In order to get a prosthetic leg attached I need to cut off your leg and I can patch up shoulder easily". George replied. "Okay do you have a tool for removing limbs"? Daniel asked. I do I have a full kit in my truck". George replied. "I will go get it". Daniel said. Daniel left the jail and went to the wall. He pulled his shotgun off of his pack and shot the fence in four corners making a square exit. He went to Dan and punched his head knocking him out and took the jail key. He went to jail unlocked Georges cage and he and Daniel went out the fence to his car. Daniel sat in the back seat and George began driving. "Thank you Daniel you brought George out of jail". Daniel did not respond and then passed out. "What's wrong with him"? May asked. "May you drive ill deal with him". George said. "Okay". She replied. George climbed to the back of the car and looked at Daniel. After examining him he found that his shoulder and leg have become infected. "May, how far are we"? George asked. "We're just about there George". George pulled out his kit and began the surgery hesitantly ,then the car stopped. "May what happened why have we stopped"? "George we have no gas"! George looked down at Daniel. "May you are going to have to help me with this I need you to hold him still because a shrapnel is in the vein going into his neck hold him still so I can remove the shrapnel". "Okay I will do my best". May replied. May walked over to Daniel and held his arms down. George pulled out his pliers and scalpel and began opening the wound. He dug in until he saw the shrapnel and he removed and dropped it out the window. At this point Daniel had woke up and yelled in pain and just now stopped. "Auggh what is going on"? "Daniel were going to cut off your leg and replace it with a prosthetic leg because if we don't do it now you will die because it has become infected". "Okay". Daniel said. George put his bone was at the tip of Daniels leg and began sawing into his leg. Daniel yelled in pain as he sawed through his leg. Once he hit the bone Daniel began to yell louder in pain. May looked out the window and saw that many walkers were being attracted by Daniels screaming. May put her hand over Daniels mouth and finally his leg was off and Daniel passed out from the shock. George readied the wound for a prosthetic leg to be attached and the front window of the van got slammed on by a walker. May grabbed Georges scalpel and stabbed it in the eye. "George we need to leave the car, wake up Daniel". George woke up Daniel as walkers approached the van. "Daniel we need to get out"! George Whispered sharply. The three left the van and readied they're guns shooting as they traveled forwards up the road. "Where are we going to go"? Daniel asked. "We are going to Oak Crest the town we live in and the town we are inviting you to do you want to come there to"? "Yes I do". Daniel replied. They continued fighting their way up the road until they reached the wall. "This is it"! George yelled. They walked towards the gate while a man stood opening it. "Augghh"! May screamed. Daniel and George looked towards her and saw that a walker had bit her shoulder from behind her. "May"! George yelled while turning his direction from the gate to her. Daniel ran and stabbed the walker in the head. "May"! George said as he held her while she was passing out from blood loss. George picked up May and ran into the town. "Come on Daniel the hordes coming"! Daniel ran inside and the man sealed the gate.

Daniel flipped his gun over his shoulder and pointed it at Tule's head. "Tule where are the people that did that"? Daniel asked. A man approached behind Daniel and pointed a revolver at his head. "Man put that gun own or Ill cap you"! The man behind him said. Daniel lowered his weapon and calmed down. "Relax Daniel I know what you must be feeling but we don't know he is dead, in fact to apologize we will supply you with weapon's, people and a car to go search for him". Tule said to Daniel. "Okay thank you when will you be ready to send them out"? Daniel asked. "At any moment". Tule replied. "Okay then we shall go now". Daniel said. "Very well". Tule replied as he called out to people and they readied a car for leaving. Tule handed Daniel a hatchet, AK47 assault rifle and hand gun. "Take these to keep". Tule said to Daniel. "Thank you". He replied. The people pulled up in front of the gate and opened it. Daniel got into the back of the van and Tule got into the drivers seat and waited as the other people got in the car. "Tule why do we need so many people to go look for one person"? Daniel asked. "Because we could be attacked by the Silent Heroes who is a group of people who want everyone at Oak Crest dead so we need to travel in numbersâ€¦ perhaps you all should introduce yourself". Tule replied. No one began to say who they were to anyone in the car. When they arrived at the area where they last battled the Silent Heroes everyone left the car and searched the area for any walkers or people in the Silent Heroes. When they saw nobody Daniel ran and saw Fernando under a walker he stabbed into him. An arrow in the walker stabbed into Fernando and blocked the flame from him. Daniel ran to Fernando and removed the walker. He saw he was unconscious and was bleeding because he removed the arrow so he picked him up and carried him into the van. "Tule there is no room in the van for him". Daniel said. "That is a problem". Tule replied. "Very well". Tule said. Tule pulled a handgun from a holster on his belt and pointed it at the man in the passenger seats head. "Nike get out of the car don't worry we will come back for you as soon as we get Fernando to Oak Crest". Tule said. Nike flipped Tule arm up and stabbed him in the chest. He then grabbed Tule's gun and hit Tule in the head knocking him out. He leaned over his seat pointing his gun in the back. "Everyone out of the car now"! Nike exclaimed. Everyone slowly got out of the car and Nike shot Tule in the head and pushed him out the car door. Nike sat in the driving seat and began to drive away. Daniel shot the tire with his 50. Handgun and the car stopped, then the car door opened and Daniel shot Nike in the head. They ran to Tule and saw that the bullet entered directly into his forehead, Daniel closed Tule's eyes and carried him to the side of the road where there was a river and put him in it. The sun began to set and Daniel looked into the woods and saw a walker. He ran to it and stabbed it in the head with his hatchet. "So my name is Daniel I want to know all your names". Daniel said. "I'm Amelia" Said a young girl. "I'm Alex". Said an elderly man in a wheelchair. "I'm Manny". Said a man. "I am Nick". Said a very young boy. "Okay now that I know who you all are how are we going to get back to Oak crest"? Daniel asked. "Are we stuck here"? Amelia asked. "What we're stuck"?! Nick asked in a scared voice. "We can walk". Manny said. Just then another walker came from the woods and Nick hid behind the car. "It's okay Nick". Daniel said as he ran to the walker and stabbed it in the head. Nick screamed and ran to Daniel. "Behind the car"! Nick screamed. Daniel and Manny ran behind the car with their guns ready to fire and saw several walkers and began to shoot. Walkers then began to come from the woods while Manny and Daniel were shooting the ones behind the car. Nick screamed and Amelia shot at them while Manny ran over and started shooting too. Alex drove his wheelchair away from walkers who came from behind him and they flipped his wheelchair causing him to lose mobility. Alex rolled onto his back and pulled out a hunting knife, the walker leaned onto him and Alex stabbed it in the eye and rolled it off of him. Manny ran to him and helped him onto his shoulder. He carried him to his wheelchair and sat him on it. The wheelchair flipped backwards when he sat on it. Manny looked and it and saw a leg was missing and the other bent. "Shit! Alex your wheelchair is broken". Manny carried him to the car and laid him under it. "Thank you Manny". Alex said. "Don't thank me yet thank me if we all live through this". Manny replied. Manny ran to Nick and put him under the car too. "Stay there Nick". Manny told him. He ran over to Daniel and there were very few walkers remaining. When there were no more walkers Manny pulled Alex out from under the car and Nick rolled out. "Nice work Daniel you ruined our only way of transportation"! Manny exclaimed. "Don't blame me would you rather we have let Nike drive away with it and leave us here with no shelter"?! Daniel exclaimed. "Are you implying that the car is a shelter"? Manny asked. "Yes because it is". Daniel said. "Are we stuck here! Are we going to die"? Nick said as he started to cry. "Nick it is going to be alright we're going to get back home and everything will be okay". Alex said. "How"?! Amelia exclaimed. "Don't lie to him Alex you don't know we are going to get back home we don't have a car and we have a wounded man how do you expect us to get back home"?! Amelia exclaimed. "Amelia calm down!" "No"! Amelia interrupted Alex. "I won't calm down and I can't stay here while everyone argues and attracts walkers I am leaving"! Amelia screamed as she ran into the woods and shot Alex in the chest. "That's what you get for what you did to my mother"! Amelia screamed. Amelia ran into the woods the opposite direction that they came from. "Amelia come back here now or I will go get you myself"! Alex yelled. "You can't my dad broke your legs"! Amelia yelled as she ran out of sight. "Manny you take that back it is not my fault we are stuck here". Daniel said as he pulled out his handgun and pointed it at Manny's head. Manny then pointed a gun at Daniel's and Daniel pulled the trigger. Manny fell to the ground and Daniel holstered his gun. "Daniel Amelia ran away" Alex said. "What"? Daniel said. "I need to get her". Daniel said. "Amelia's gone"? Nick asked. "Yes Nick Amelia ran away but I'm going to get her back". Daniel said. "Daniel I cant keep Nick safe on my own I cant even walk on my own". Alex said. "If I leave you with a gun you and Nick can stay in the car lock the doors and his under the blanket in the trunk until I get back". Daniel said. Daniel went to the trunk and took the blanket from inside it. Daniel picked up Alex over his shoulder and carried him into the car and laid him on the floor. "Nick get on the floor and under the blanket". Nick got under the blanket spread across the floor and Daniel locked the doors. "Daniel sit me on the middle seat so I can keep Nick safe please". Alex said. "Are you sure"? Nick asked. "You probably wont get attacked if you hide". Daniel said. "I am sure". Alex said. Daniel lifted Alex to the middle seat and Nick laid on the floor under the blanket. Alex loaded the gun and Daniel ran into the woods the direction Amelia ran. Daniel followed her footprints until he reached a red car and Amelia and a man pointed a gun at him. "Dad I know him it's Daniel". Amelia said. "Go away Daniel or we will shoot you". The man said. Daniel turned around and began walking until he stood next to a large tree. He took cover behind it and shot the man with Amelia in the head. "Dad no"! Amelia cried. Daniel walked out of cover with his hands up. "Amelia come back with me please". Daniel pleaded. Amelia pointed a gun at Daniel. "Why would I go back with you? You shot my father"! Amelia exclaimed. "Amelia come with me Oak crest is safe and we will get back there I promise now please just come back with me". Daniel said. "Daniel I am sorry but I have to do this".

*BOOM

7. Chapter 7 The Vengefull Family

Alex looked out the window and saw the sun was setting and Daniel left when it was rising. "Alex can I come out of the blanket please"? Nick asked. "Yes Nick you can come out". Nick looked out the window and saw the sun setting to. "Alex Daniel has been gone a long time do you think something bad happened"? Nick asked. "No Nick I'm sure he's fine, he's probably just still looking for her". Alex replied. "Do you think Amelia is okâ€|"? Nick asked. Alex looked at Nick and stared into his eyes. "How long do you think she can survive all on her own it's been basically a who day and she has been out there". Nick said. Nick I don't know but I'm sure she's fine she left with a gun and"â€| Alex remembered when she left and that she shot him and he forgot because he was in shock. Alex looked at his chest and saw his wound looked infected. "Augghâ€|". Alex passed out and fell to the floor. "Alex are you okay please wake up I don't want to be alone"! Nick looked out the window to see if Daniel came back yet and saw a walker and screamed. "Alex please wake up there's one of the monsters outside"! Nick screamed. The walker started pounding on the window and Nick back up to the end of the row of seats and a walker started pounding on the window near him to. The window on the side with broke in and started climbing in. Nick started crying louder and grabbed Alex's gun and shot the walker without aiming and hit it in the chest. He cocked it again and shot it hitting it in the face and blowing off it cheek. The window behind him broke and the walker started climbing in. He shot the one in front of him and went to Alex's side and started co cock it. Before he could shoot the walker lunged onto him and bit him in the arm. He yelled out for Alex and he jolted awake. "Nick"! Alex yelled. He punched the walker in the head knocking him into the front seat. He grabbed his gun and shot the walker in the head. "Alex thank you"! Nick exclaimed. Alex looked at Nick and saw that he was bleeding in his arm. "Nick is that a bite"? Alex asked as he pointed to his arm. "Yes it bit me why"? Nick asked. "Nick when people get bit by one of those monsters they become one of themâ€¦that's why there is so many". Alex told Nick. Alex looked at Nick with tears in his eyes and pointed his shotgun at Nick's head. "Alex"? Nick asked. "I'm so sorry Nick". Alex said and he pulled the trigger.

*BOOM Daniel fell to his knees and look up to Amelia.
"Ameliaâ€¦please come with me". Daniel said. "Daniel you shot my father I'm going back to Oak Crest but you aren't". Amelia said. Amelia walked over to Daniel and hit him in the temple with her gun and knocked him out. She took his Hatchet, AK47, handgun, shotgun and his backpack and ran towards the road where their car was. Amelia reached the road and saw the car windows were broken. She went to it and saw Nick was dead and Alex as sitting. "Alex what happened how did Nick die"? Amelia asked. "I passed out and he was bit so I shot him in the head before he turned". Alex replied. "Why were you unconscious you were supposed to be protecting him and you killed him because he was bit because of you"! Amelia exclaimed. "I passed out because my chest got infected because you shot me. If you didn't shoot me because of your anger problems Nick would still be alive". Alex said. "Anger problems? You mean me shooting you because you killed my mother means I have anger problems"?! Amelia exclaimed. "I'm just sayingâ€¦". "No"! Amelia interrupted. "I don't have anger problems you just deserve to be screamed and shot at and I give people what they deserve and you deserve this"! Amelia screamed as she pointed her gun at Alex's head and pulled the trigger. She then put his shotgun in his hand's and made it look like he committed suicide. "Lets see how people remember you at your funeral now". Amelia said. Amelia walked towards Oak Crest for what seemed like two hours until she saw people from Oak Crest in a car greeting her. The driver reeled down the window. "Amelia where is everyone else"? The man asked. "They're all dead as far as I know Alex killed Nick and then shot himself in the head and I don't know where Daniel is but Tule is dead". "Tule died how"?! The man asked. "Nike shot him in the head and ran away with Daniel". Amelia said. "Okay get in" The man said. Amelia walked to the car and got in the back seat. The man turned and drove towards Oak Crest.

Daniel stood up and looked around he saw a man standing over him with a gun pointed at his head. "Where is my daughter"?! The man yelled causing Daniel to jolt awake. "What"? Daniel asked. Daniel stood up and saw that the man was Amelia's father that he shot. "I'm willing to forgive you for shooting me if you tell me where my daughter is". The man said. "What is your name"? Daniel asked. "My name is Marshal". The man said. "Okay your daughter is Amelia I don't know where she is but she said she went to Oak Crest. "Damn I left Alex with Nick. Marshal I need to go check on someone I left him in a car in the road with a small child and he is crippled I told him I'd be back I need to go". Daniel said. "Okay Daniel you can go but I'm going". Marshal replied. Daniel walked away from the car in the direction of the road until he saw the stream. He jumped across it and ran to the car and saw the broken windows. He looked and saw Nick was shot in the head and Alex killed himself. He looked closer and saw Nick was bit in the arm and Alex shot him because of that. "Okay now take me to Amelia". Marshal said. Daniel ducked and punched upwards at Marshals elbow and knocked the gun out of his hands. Marshal leaped towards his gun and Daniel put his arm around Marshal's neck. "Marshal I don't want to kill you but I will unless you agree to not harm anyone at Oak Crest and to not threaten to kill me". Marshal nodded and Daniel threw his behind the car. Daniel grabbed Marshals gun and pointed it at him. "Marshal keep walking forwards the opposite way of the cars front and you'll get there eventually". Daniel told him. Marshal walked and Daniel followed aiming at Marshals head. Marshal quickly turned around and threw a dart into Daniels arm. Daniel shot but Marshal ran behind cover of a tree while he was still reacting to the dart hitting him. Daniel passed out and Marshal shot ten times into the sky attracting walkers.

Marshal walked up the road and saw the gate to Oak Crest. "Amelia"! Marshal exclaimed. "Is Amelia your daughter"? A man asked. "Yes she is". Marshal said. They opened the gate and Amelia left with Marshal.

Daniel woke up and looked around. He saw a familiar faced person standing near him but he couldn't remember who's face it was. Daniel stood up and saw that it was Fernando. "Fernando you're alive"? Daniel asked. He ran to him and he vanished. Daniel looked around and didn't see anyone so he walked to Oak Crest to deliver the new of Alex and Nick dying and that Fernando was no where to be seen but he isn't dead. He walked until he saw the gate and the guards pointed they're guns at him. "Go away traitor you are not welcome here". The guard said. "What"? Daniel asked. "Amelia told us what you did now leave". The guard said. "What did she say"? Daniel asked. "Did Amelia lie"? The guard asked. "I don't know what she said but I have information to tell. Alex is dead and he shot Nick because he got bit. Amelia ran away into the woods and I don't know where she is now and Fernando is alive but I don't know where he is now he was unconscious when I found him. Nike shot Tule in the head and I killed him, we put Tule's body in the river. I also shot Manny in the head. "You killed Manny why"? The guard asked. "I don't rememberâ€|". Daniel said and he passed out and fell to the ground. "Daniel"?! The guard asked. He opened the gate and people carried him in and to the hospital wing.

Marshal jumped over the stream and ran to his car. He got in the front seat and Amelia got in the passenger seat. "Dad"? "Yes Amelia". "Where are we going"? "We are going to get you're mother". "You know where she is"?! "Yes she talked on her walkie-talkie and said she's at a place called Blue Shield its down the road from where you ran from she locked up in a cage and the town is overrun by walkers so it shouldn't be hard to get her out". "Dad I killed Alex". "The Alex that sent your mom out of Oak Crest"? "Yeah". "That's good if you didn't I would have beat him to death" They arrived at Blue Shield and saw a hole in the fence. They got out and fully loaded they're guns, they climbed through the gap in the fence and saw a jail building. They opened the doors and the building was full of walkers and only she was not one of them. They open fired into the building until all the walkers were dead. "Rose"! Marshal yelled as he ran over to the cage. "Honey I'm so glad you came I missed you two so much"! Rose exclaimed. "How are we going to get you out"? Amelia asked. Silence engulfed the room and Marshal stared into Rose's eyes. "Rose I will check every walker in this town to find the key". Marshal said. Before she could respond he ran over to a walker and searched its pockets for the key he then continued to the next walker. "Dad are you going to search every dead body in the town"? Amelia asked. "Yes Amelia". Marshal replied.

"Daniel can you hear me" A female voice called out. "What"? Daniel replied as he slowly woke up. "What happened"? Daniel asked. "We don't know that's why we woke you there is a poison in your blood has anyone injected you with anything recently"? The girl asked. "Yeah Marshal, Amelia's dad threw a dart in my shoulder and it made me pass out". Daniel replied. "Okay the poison he injected into you is an unnamed poison usually sold in black markets it is nicknamed Sleep Savior, it is called that because it is usually given to people who are told it will help them with infections who they want to kill". "Am I going to die"? Daniel asked. "Not if we can get Sercion which was created at Blue Shield because people there were killed using it". My name is Sophie by the way". Daniel passed out and Sophie walked outside and everyone was talking in a circle. "If Tule is dead who is going to be the leader of Oak Crest"? Sophie asked. "I vote for Raul he is Tule's son he should be our leader". "Are you insane Giovanni? He may be Tule's son but he is only fourteen he can't be our leader.". "What my dad is dead"? Raul asked. "Raul I'm sorry Nike shot him". Sophie said. "Nike killed him where is he"? Raul asked. "He is dead". Sophie said. Raul turned and then looked back to the circle. "Who is going to be our leader"? Raul asked. "Do you think you can handle being our leader Raul"? Sophie asked. "Yes I do I promise I can". Raul replied. "Okay if anyone is against it say so now". No one said anything. "Okay then Raul you are our leader". Sophie said.

5 Hours later at Blue Shield

"Rose whoever has the key is not here they could be anywhere in the world". Marshal said. "Honey you can leave me". Rose said. "Why would I do that Rose I love you please don't ever think that way I could never find it in myself to do that". Marshal looked to where he thought Amelia was and he didn't see her. "Get on the ground now"! A voice said. Marshal turned around and saw a large group of people and they had Amelia with a gun pointed at her head. "You heard me both of you get on your knees"! He yelled. Marshal and Rose got on their knees and they moved into the building. The man took the guns from Marshals belt and the bag from his back. "You got anything on you girl"? "No". Rose replied. The man holding Amelia took the gun from her holster and all the weapons and supplies she took from Daniel. The group then pointed a gun at Rose and Marshal. "You guys got a home"? "No" Marshal said. "I don't believe that for a second, you guys got so many guns and supplies you must have at least somewhere you live don't you". "No we don't live anywhere we have been traveling in a car though" Marshal said. "Well what made you stop here then"? "We came to get my wife but she is locked up". Marshal replied. The man pointing a gun at Marshals head approached him. "Is that your car parked in front of the fence"? "Yes". Marshal said. "Wrong"! The man said before throwing Amelia to the ground and shooting her in the leg. "The car is now ours" The man said. "You know what I like you so I am going to tell you something". my name is Jean and if anyone at your town asks why you walked there you can say Jean took his car". The man said. Jean pointed his gun at Marshal and shot him in the leg. "Now you take your daughter to a doctor and you could probably use some help to so to make it even I will do this to". Jean pointed his gun at Rose and shot her in the head. "Oops looks like I hit her head well what can you do". Jean said. Marshal stood up and tackled him. He disarmed Jean and pointed his gun at his head. A man picked Amelia up and pointed his gun at her head and everyone else pointed they're gun at Marshal. "This will not end well for you unless you drop him because we will shoot you and Amelia in ten seconds even if you don't drop him". A man said. Marshal dropped Jean and his gun and got on his knees. "That's right just stay there". Jean said. Jean walked to his car and opened the trunk. He pulled out a sledge hammer and walked behind the man holding Amelia. He threw her onto the ground and Jean walked over to her. "Marshal I hope you watching real close". Jean said. "Please don't hurt her". Marshal said. "You should have thought about that before you threatened to kill me". Jean said. Jean put the sledgehammer above Amelia and readied to slam down onto her. "Wait kill me instead". Marshal pleaded. "No". Jean replied. Jean slammed the sledge hammer down onto Amelia's head and Marshal tackled Jean and put his gun to his head. "You bastard I'm going to fucking kill you" Marshal screamed as he pulled the trigger. Everyone pointed they're guns at Marshal and open fired making sure not to kill him. They looked and saw walkers coming. "Bye bye dead boy you aint gonna live much longer".
